From Tuesday April 4. to Saturday April 8. 1721.

Stockholm, March 15, O. S.

ON the 9th Inſtant the King of Sweden went to a Seat called Swarta about 20 Leagues from hence, where his Majeſty met the Prince his Brother, and the 10th in the Evening they came together to this City. The next Morning the Prince was complimented by the Senators, foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, on his Arrival. On the 11th Count Freytag, the Imperial Envoy, ſet out for Copenhagen. This Morning Count Lillieſted and Baron Strumfield ſet out for Griſlehaven, whence they propoſe to paſs over to Ahland, and thence to Finland, in order to open the Conferences which it has been agreed to hold at Neuſtat with the Muſcovite Plenipotentiaries. The King having lately appointed a Commiſſion of Members of the Chancery, not only to inquire into the Conduct of M. Hopken, late Reſident from this Crown at the Court of Vienna, but alſo to paſs ſuch a Sentence in the Caſe as they ſhall find agreeable to Juſtice and the Laws of the Kingdom; thoſe Commiſſioners, of whom Count Banier is Preſident, ſat Yeſterday for the firſt time.

Stockholm, March 22, O. S. On the 20th Inſtant a Muſcovite Officer, who came round the Bothnick Gulph, arrived here from Petersbourg: It is ſaid he was but 16 Days on the Way, and has brought a Letter from General Bruce for Count Lillieſted, to acquaint him that the ſaid General and his Colleague, as Plenipotentiaries from the Czar, were on their Departure for Neuſtat, and therefore deſired the Swediſh Plenipotentiaries would alſo haſten their Journey thither; whereupon an Expreſs was immediately ſent to Count Lillieſted and Baron Strumfield, who were then at Griſlehaven, with Orders to proceed on their Journey with all Diligence. Yeſterday the King, Queen and Prince of Heſſe dined at Ulrichſdahl, a Place about a League from hence, and returned to Town in the Evening. This Morning the King and Prince ſet out for Upſal, whence his Majeſty deſigns to proceed to Gafle, to view the ſeveral Diſpoſitions that have during the Winter been made in the Neighbourhood of that Place, to oppoſe the Muſcovites in caſe they ſhould attempt this Year to land thereabouts. General Hamilton accompanies the King, he being this Year again appointed to command the Body of Troops which are to defend that Part of the Country.

Paris, April 12. M. Fagon, Trudaine, Machault, and Ferrant, are named Commiſſioners to examine the Accompts of the India Company, and to make an Inventory of all their Effects. And eight Perſons are appointed, in whoſe Hands the ſaid Effects are to be ſequeſtered in the King's Name, till a new Company be formed. The Arrêt which declares the old Company Bankrupt, is in the Preſs, and 'tis expected will be publiſhed To-Morrow. That Arrêt is to be followed by another for erecting a new Company to carry on the Trade, of which 'tis ſaid Meſſ. Paris will have the chief Direction. On the 10th Inſtant the King performed the uſual Ceremony of waſhing the Feet of 12 Poor, whom he ſerved afterwards at Table, the Diſhes being carried up by the Duke Regent, the Duke of Chartres, and the reſt of the Princes of the Blood. After which the King went in Ceremony to hear Maſs at the Church of the Capuchins in the Street St. Honoré; the Feuillans, to whoſe Church he uſed formerly to go, having incurred his Majeſty's Diſpleaſure, on account of their having renewed their Appeal from the Pope's Conſtitution. Four new Corps de Garde are eſtabliſhed in this City, for the better preventing all Diſorders. The Duke Regent has given Orders to Meſſ. Paris, to ſend two Millions of Livres in Specie into Provence, for the Relief of ſuch Places as are yet infected with the Plague; and Directions are likewiſe given to the Intendants of the neighbouring Provinces, to furniſh them with all ſorts of Proviſions. The Penſion which the Duke of Orleans gave to M. Longepierre lately deceaſed, has ſince been conferred upon M. de Fontenelle.

Berlin, April 5. The King of Pruſſia came hither from Potſdam the 2d Inſtant. Major-General Meyer having notified the Death of the Queen of Denmark, the King of Pruſſia with this Court, and all the foreign Miniſters, went into Mourning Yeſterday for Six Weeks.

Hague, April 15. The Man of War that is to carry the Flag of M. Somerſdick, Admiral of the Squadron deſigned for the Mediterranean, as alſo the three other Ships fitted out by the Admiralty of Amſterdam for that Service, are already at the Texel; and the reſt of that Squadron will ſoon be ready. The young Prince of Naſſau-Friſeland fell ill of the Small-Pox at Lewarden ſome Days ago, but is in a fair Way of Recovery.

Whitehall, April 8.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, to be Paymaſter-General of His Majeſty's Forces.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant the Office of Poſtmaſter-General to the Honourable Edward Carteret, Eſq; and Galfridus Walpole, Eſq;

Whitehall, April 8, 1721.

Whereas the ſeveral Reduced Officers of His Majeſty's Land-Forces and Marines, whoſe Names are hereunder ſet down, have not received the Half-Pay due to them between the 25th Day of December 1718, and the 24th of December 1719: Theſe are therefore to require them, (if alive,) to make their Claims to the ſaid Half-Pay in Thirty Days from the Date hereof, either in Perſon or by Letter of Attorney, otherwiſe the ſame will be diſpoſed of in ſuch manner as His Majeſty ſhall pleaſe hereafter to direct by Warrant. Geo. Treby.
